

Customised Monitoring Services

1 CONSOLIDATED

way to source all the information you need

Information about legislative issues, government and parliamentary decisions as well as documentation is crucial to understanding the development trajectory of the economy. No competitive business can afford to overlook the ongoing need for precise, current and error-free information. Customised Monitoring Services provide accurate and reliable reports on government policies and legislative developments, which are customised to your selected topics and fields of interest. Decide on your fields of interest and we will keep you updated without you having to do all the work.

Customised Monitoring Services offers an early warning service for legislative policy and movements or developments in strategic industries. Extensive research is undertaken daily on your chosen topics and you receive customised email reports on the issues affecting you and your industry.

WE:

- Use professional sources to certify unbiased and objective reporting and provide links to related content.
- Deliver this service through a report and related documents directly to your inbox either immediately if something of interest occurs on your selected fields of interests or on a weekly basis, depending on which service you've chosen.

YOU:

- Get Customised Monitoring Services according to your specific fields of interest.
- Get customised alerts for tracking bills and draft bills before they become Acts and on any amendments of Acts.

As part of this service or as a stand-alone service, we also offer
Bill Tracker and Parliamentary Documents.
