Does my business need to access the Regulatory Instruments?

The Sabinet Financial Regulatory Instruments package ensures that you remain abreast of all regulatory requirements prescribed for the Financial sector. With an increased focus on corporate governance, your business cannot afford to fall short in terms of compliance.

Users can further enhance the value of the Financial Regulatory instrument offering by subscribing to Sabinet's National Legislation service (NetLaw), which will enable easy and seamless access to the relevant Legislation.

NetLaw provides access to all National Legislation with rules and regulations since 1910. Cross-linking is part of the service offering in that linking is done between legislation, Regulatory Instruments, and even judgments. With this powerful pairing, users can further empower their business compliance function by streamlining and widening access to information.
