Benefits – Premium South African Legal Research (Sabinet)

ONE

Specialisation in South African Legislation

TWO

Sabinet's National Legislation service provides users with instant online access to all South African Legislation, enabling them to stay up to date with the national legislation currently in force.

THREE

Covers updated and consolidated South African principal Acts, Rules and Regulations dating back to 1910. Includes the most recent amendments, which are clearly labelled and easy to find. The Act begins with a historical overview of all amendments to that Act, and Acts that are currently in force are listed alphabetically and chronologically.

FOUR

The service responds to the dynamic nature of the South African legal environment by delivering timely and precise updates on new legislation or amendments to existing Acts.

FIVE

Provides an easy-to-use and comprehensive search function for all South African legislation, as well as weekly newsletters delivered directly to your inbox.

Sabinet's in-depth South African legislative, judicial and legal research collection complements Afriwise's offering focusing on the rest of Africa. Combining these resources provides a unique and valuable offering to our clients.
