9 GOOD REASONS

Why Sabinet's National Legislation (NetLaw) remains essential for legislative research

Sabinet's South African National Legislation (NetLaw) provides access to updated and consolidated South African legislation currently in force, helping legal professionals find, verify and work with updated, credible legislative information efficiently. With daily updates, amendment history, cross-linking and full-text access, NetLaw supports reliable legal research.

ONE

Access updated and consolidated South African National Legislation since 1910, and currently in force.

TWO

Stay current with weekly newsletters on new national legislation, and amendments to Acts and regulations.

THREE

Benefit from timeous updates within 5 working days as new legislation and amendments become available.

FOUR

Spot the latest amendments quickly. Recent amendments are clearly highlighted, making it easier to identify changes.

FIVE

View the amendments history of each Act and regulation at a glance. At the top of every piece of legislation, NetLaw provides a historical view of amendments, helping users verify how legislation has changed over time.

SIX

Research more efficiently with cross-linking between relevant legislative provisions. Find legislation easily through alphabetical and chronological lists of Acts in force.

SEVEN

Work with related Court Forms published in Acts.

EIGHT

Organise your legislative research in a way that works for you. Users can personalise content by using myDiscover functionality to group items by topic, or client, add notes for future reference and create alerts on topics and legislation relevant to them.

NINE

Email, print and download full-text versions of the Act, Amended Acts and Rules & Regulations quickly and easily.

The South African National Legislation (NetLaw) is one of the trusted legal information sources used within the Sabinet's Legal Research Assistant product offering. Users can ask legal research questions in natural language and receive clear, contextual answers generated from curated legal content, including NetLaw. Access to the full text of NetLaw legislation requires a separate NetLaw subscription. To view the complete source documents referenced by the Legal Research Assistant, users must have active subscriptions to both the Legal Research Assistant and NetLaw.

This integrated approach provides a seamless research workflow while ensuring that every answer is supported by authoritative, trusted legal sources.
